

Broward County Foreclosure Prevention Program

This Program is designed to preserve the affordable housing stock of Broward County for single family home owners who need assistance in the form of a deferred payment loan to pay defaulted mortgages where the home owner is in default at least thirty (30) days. The property must be owner occupied, and the home and homeowner must meet program qualifications and guidelines.

The program is administered by the:

Broward County Housing Authority

4780 North State Road 7

Lauderdale Lakes, FL 33319

954-497-4583 (Voice Mailbox for Housing Counseling)

For more detailed information about foreclosure proceedings and processes, please visit the federal Housing and Urban Development Department, the Internal Revenue Service, and the Broward County Clerk of Court websites. To further define your search, you may type foreclosure in the keyword search boxes on the Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and the Internal Revenue Service sites.